1. Find a logical order in the pictures.
2. Describe each picture in detail, that is: say exactly where the man is, where the dog is (has it got a name?), what both are doing etc.
3. Write or tell the story of the man and his doggie. (Use the past tense chiefly.)

You may use the following words:

- | | |
|----------------------|----------------------|
| building | to need |
| next to | amazed |
| along | bowler hat |
| house | moustache |
| wall | trees |
| window | lap |
| dog (dachshund?) | to caress / to pet |
| to peer into ... | satisfied |
| ... the far distance | board / notice |
| to lag behind | bench |
| to keep up | against |
| to run along | park |
| to weigh | to park |
| to measure | to stay / lag behind |
| weight | to buy |
| weighing scales | to slim down |
| a ride | too fat / heavy |
| exercise | to lose weight |

Also think about some story-line, like this:

Introduction

- Information about the man (and his little dog);
- who they were (names?);
- where they live (what kind of town);
- what he did for life (what job? Unemployed?);
- married/divorced? (why?);
- widower? (how come? how long for?);
- still single? (lonely?);
- his personality etc.

Narrative / Middle section

- what he decided to do, one day;
- why he did so? (because everybody did so? / Just for fun? / because the media told him to watch his health? / ... ?)
- what he used to do before;
- (unexpected) consequences / coincidences etc.

End / Conclusion
